

Border County Notes

Friday, September 29, 1905

CARROLL.

Geo. W. Bush of Norborne is dead.

Mrs. M. F. Zwickley of Norborne died Wednesday. She was 74 years old.

Mrs. Cliff Connor, col., of South Carrollton died Monday evening.

The residence of Andrew Finlayson of Carrollton was considerably damaged by lightning Monday evening.

Revs. J. M. Ragan and S. E. McDonald are holding a protracted-meeting at the C. P. church in Coloma.

Arnold Shanklin, an old Carrollton boy, has been appointed consul-general to Panama at a salary of $4,500 a year and fees.

Thanne Grossman of near Miami Station had six head of horses and mules drowned in Big creek during the recent overflow.

The cupola of the handsome new courthouse at Carrollton was damaged to the amount of $250 by lightning Saturday night.

J. P. Caulk of near Tina had both bones of his leg broken just above the ankle Wednesday morning by his horse falling on a bridge with him.

Mrs. John Guitar of Carrollton crossed the dark river Thursday morning in the 64th year of her age. She leaves a husband and several children.

The Tina Herald entered upon its 23rd year with last week's issue. The Herald is a newsy and interesting paper and deserves to succeed.

John Mathieson of Bogard, for 40 years a resident of Carroll county, died suddenly one day last week. He was 82 years old, and is survived by several children.

Eli Brighton of near Wakenda was caught by Policeman Smith in Bowers & Crouch's hardware store at Carrollton, he having gained access by forcing open the back door. Pending his trial Smith was lodged in jail.

Great damage was done to crops, bridges, roads, etc., by the recent heavy rains in Carroll county which caused an overflow of all the local streams. The total rainfall was estimated at 12 inches and the losses incurred are placed at $200,000.

MARRIAGES.

John Casseldine and Miss Stella Lee, both of Washington township.

Clyde Carter of Bogard and Miss Tenia Long of Mendon.

W. E. Lovell of Norborne and Miss Lizzie Leota Wright of Linneus.

R. D. Burris of Salisbury and Miss Ben Johns of De Witt.

Jas. Ballinger of Kansas and Miss Amee Allen of near De Witt.

HOWARD.

Thursday was the 61st annual opening of Howard-Payne college.

Charley Harvey, an aged darkey, died and was buried at Roanoke one day last week.

James Grossman had about 245 head sheep drowned in the stockpens at Rosae all Saturday night.

Robertson Bros. of Roanoke sold a 2-year-old horse to the Monroe County Saddle Horse Co. for $1,200.

George Stokeman of near Armstrong had three horses killed by lightning during the storm Friday night.

Alex Bradford of Armstrong sold a team of Missouri-bred horses to C. C. Walker of Mexico for $2,750 one day last week.

The announcement of the marriage of Herman W. Wengler of Glasgow and Miss Christine Huslage of Dutzow, Mo., is to take place in October.

On account of the rain last Saturday the Armstrong fair was postponed until the next Saturday. Besides the regular program that day there were quite a number of new attractions.

Phillip, the 15-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Grant Eubanks, narrowly escaped drowning while bathing in a pond, near Armstrong, Sunday. He was rescued by his father who was called by Phillip's younger brothers.

Monday Glasgow's mayor called a special council meeting to receive bids for doing the street work for a period of three years. The contract was let to Edward Gannon for $1,600—$600 the first year and $500 each succeeding year during the life of the contract.

The high water last week did much damage to the streets and roads leading to Glasgow, also the canning factory which is considered dangerous owing to the overflow in the basement. The gasoline ferry broke away from her moorings and drifted down the stream.

Monday night burglars entered two business-houses and the post-office at Armstrong. M. Martin & Bro.'s grocery-store was robbed of about 20 razor and other small articles amounting to about $20. Wm. Markland & Co.'s drygoods-store of 50 cents and a pair of shoes. The post-office of about $5.

MARRIAGES.

Tom Allen and Miss Maud Peeler, both of Armstrong.

J. H. Spry and Miss Brooksie Ketchum, both of Howard county.

LINN.

A new brick Christian church is being built at Brookfield.

Wm. L. Moore of Linneus had three fine steers killed by lightning Friday night.

Mrs. Frank Inman, aged 25 years, of Laclade died of consumption Thursday.

Dr. W. Roy Adams of Loreda and Miss Edna Fetty of Linneus are to be married October 4.

Katie, the 7-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. B. F. Ridgeway of Meadville, died Monday morning.

John C. Ailor of near Linneus lost a good barn and its contents from being struck by lightning Saturday night.

M. H. Taylor and H. Vantiger of near Marceline had two

Fifty Years the Standard

DR. PRICE'S CREAM BAKING POWDER

A Cream of Tartar Powder
Made From Grapes
No Alum

horses and a mare, respectively, killed by lightning Friday night.

H. D. Porter of Marceline has been awarded the contract for building a new, four-room brick schoolhouse at Hardland, Mo.

The barn of Hiram Long of Marceline, formerly editor of the Journal of that city, was burned to the ground by lightning Friday. Insured.

Mr. and Mrs. P. D. Schrock of near Browning celebrated the 50th or golden anniversary of their marriage Sunday, September 17.

There are 89 cases on the docket of the coming October term of circuit court at Brookfield, which meets next Monday, October 2.

Ed Ellis has been lodged in jail at Linneus to await trial at the October term of circuit court for robbing Dick Oldham in Marceline four weeks since.

Mrs. Wm. J. Chalmers of Marceline died Monday afternoon, aged 41. Her maiden name was Burns. She leaves a husband and two daughters.

John W. Pace of near Hybrid died Monday in the 82nd year of his age. Mr. Pace was a native of Kentucky, but had lived in Linn county since 1857. Four sons and one daughter survive him.

Eli H. Salisbury, a pioneer merchant of Brookfield, he having been at one time a member of the mercantile firm of Tooley & Salisbury of that city, died at his home in Farmer City, Mich., Thursday.

MARRIAGES.

Clarence Calvert of Marion county and Miss Lillie Willett of Linn county.

Jos. E. Iberg of Eversonville and Miss Alice Long of Hecla.

Frank L. Brooks and Miss Rose A. Murrell, both of Linneus.

Chas. Jones and Miss Ola Brunemer, both of Laclade.

Chas. W. Finney and Miss Lucinda J. McCollum, both of Baker township.

LIVINGSTON.

Louis Himen of near Chula was successfully operated upon Wednesday afternoon at St. Mary's hospital for appendicitis.

A burning straw-bedtick in a yard on Ann street, Chillicothe, caused a timid neighbor to give an alarm of fire Sunday night. The hose cart made a quick run to the scene. No water was thrown.

The proposition of 10 local business and professional men to hold a street fair and a corn and stock show in Chillicothe in October is meeting with great approval and the event will probably be carried out.

W. T. Tubbs, who mysteriously disappeared from his home in the North 17 years ago, and for whom a search was made by his daughter, Mrs. Mary Clark of Blue Earth, Minn., in Chillicothe, Kansas City and other places, was recently located at Newport, Ark.

A farmer, who was said to have been drunk and created a disturbance in Scruby's grocery-store at Chillicothe Monday, was thrown out by a clerk, and the farmer, after he had recovered his equilibrium, drew a knife and tried to stab the clerk. He was not allowed to use the weapon however, and drove off in a wagon muttering under his breath.

Joseph Webb, a farmer of near Ludlow, is supposed to have been drowned in the back water of School creek Monday morning. Mr. Webb left his home early Monday morning for Breckenridge, and an hour after his horse returned without him. An investigation was at once made on the banks of the river but no hat was found. The supposition is that in trying to swim his horse to the bridge he was unseated and swept down the stream.

Demonstration of the "li serewing" process was given by Mayor Hirsch and the police Sunday. The Chillicothe saloons were closed all day and the city executive again congratulated himself on the condition of the town Monday morning. An amusing incident developed when one of the officers ran onto three young men trying to break into the back door of the Luella saloon. The young men were surprised and left hurriedly.

MARRIAGES.

C. F. Foster and Miss Katherine Stewart, both of Livingston county.

Etna Sisk of Ottumwa and Miss Maud Darby of Livingston county.

Geo. Hubbard of Moberly and Miss Emma Brownfield of Chillicothe.

Dan Riley and Miss Mary Hackett, both of Chillicothe.

MACON.

Geo. Hawkins of near Ethel died of typhoid fever Thursday morning.

Macon public schools have an enrollment this year of 819 as against 752 in 1904.

Mrs. Jacob Fisher of Macon, who had been an invalid for 14 years, died Thursday in her 32nd year. She leaves a husband and three sons.

W. J. Randolph, the Santa Fe brakeman who was charged with having kicked J. D. Wingate, a boy, from a moving freight train, is again a free man, the Macon grand jury having failed to return a true bill against him.

The Macon County Poultry association was organized at the Citizens bank in Macon Wednesday afternoon. The object of the organization is to promote the poultry industry in that county, and, if possible, induce hens to lay more than one egg a day.

Macon county had its first grand jury in three years at the September term of circuit court. In his charge to the jury Judge Shelton placed especial stress on the habit of gambling, which he denounced as one of the most outrageous and dangerous in the whole catalogue of crimes.

An old Italian woman who runs a boarding house at mine No. 66 was accosted and choked by a couple of robbers Tuesday morning and made to give the free-booters $18 she had in a trunk. She gives a good description of the robbers, but they have not yet been apprehended.

As a result of the anti-saloon league, B. Williams and D. C. Griffin, LaPlata druggists, have been arrested and fined $800, each, and Frank Masterson, a restaurant man of the same place, $600 by Police Judge H. D. Bunch for illegal traffic in liquor. The defendants all appealed to the circuit court.

The Macon Republican says that Frank Croarkin of Macon was arrested Sunday morning by Marshal Oxley, charged with exhibiting a pistol in a threatening manner at Harvey Woods, salesman for Arthur Gibe. The trouble arose over Harvey's refusal to credit Croarkin for a couple of papers. During the racket Harvey got hold of the pistol and notified the officers. Croarkin gave a bond of $15 for his appearance for the preliminary examination before Squire Greer the 29th. Oth. Mathews is his attorney.

MARRIAGES.

W. F. Burnett of Evelyn and Miss Allie Conklin of Bucklin.

J. D. Payton and Miss Mary E. Sullivan, both of Grifford.

G. C. Graves and Miss Mar. E. Long, both of Longville.

RANDOLPH.

Mrs. Susana Martin of Moberly passed away Saturday at 4 o'clock. She leaves one daughter.

The Moberly Signals defeated the Higbee Blues in a game of baseball at Moberly Sunday. Score, 4-2.

Mrs. Susie A. Heathman of Higbee has sued for a divorce from her husband, Everett B. Heathman, because he ate pies on Friday that she had baked for Sunday.

The Huntsville Herald offers a two-years' subscription to the Herald for the largest pumpkin raised in Randolph county this year.

After an illness of two years, Harvey H. Hunter of Moberly answered to his Master's call Tuesday morning. Death was due to paralysis. The young man was 24 years of age.

"Uncle" Bob Elliott dropped dead of heart failure at his home, near Drksville, Wednesday.

neslay. He was the oldest native-born citizen of Randolph county, being over 85 years.

Rev. A. M. Buchanan claims to be the oldest native citizen of Moberly. Years ago his parents lived on a tract of ground which is now a part of the city of Moberly, and in that home he was born 58 years ago or September 16, 1847. Rev. Buchanan remembers well when wild deer roamed over the prairie on which Moberly now stands, and he can relate many interesting experiences of the early days.

Scotty Henderson and John Brooks, both of Renick, had a shooting affray Monday in which Brooks fired a bullet at Henderson which struck him near the cheek, inflicting a serious wound. The two men had quarreled over some of Henderson's hogs getting into Brooks' cornfield. Brooks went to Henderson's to settle and was ordered from the premises. He went home and procured a pistol and, returning, shot Henderson. The two men are brothers-in-law.

MARRIAGES.

H. C. Reeves of Harrisburg and Miss Anna Hitt of Randolph county.

G. W. Brewer and Miss Blanch Bohanon, both of Higbee.

SALINE.

James Jones of Saline county lost 46 head of sheep which were in his timber on Blackwater during the recent week of rain.

The C. & A. water-tank, near the coal chute at Slater has been raised four feet so the big engines can take water without wasting so much.

Salt Fork was out of its banks Saturday and several parties from Miami who were at the Marshall carnival were not able to get home.

Cora Valentine died September 12, 1905, at the home of her parents, near Marshall, of typhoid fever, aged 13 years. She leaves a father, mother and one brother.

Mrs. E. A. Scott of Miami was 84 years old, September 22, but is still young enough to do splendid work with pencil and brush. She has just completed a portrait of her grand-daughter.

J. S. Chiswell, a former citizen of Saline county, was struck by lightning while prospecting in the mountains, near his home, at Georgetown, Colo. His remains were brought to Marshall Monday for interment.

The large residence of J. M. Parks in Miami township was entirely destroyed by fire Friday of last week. The family was away from home and nothing was saved from the building. There was no insurance.

Albert Holden, aged 28 years, a deaf mute of Saline county, committed suicide last Friday by hanging himself with a halter in a stable. He had been in bad health for sometime, and had wandered away from home frequently.

Holland Scott, who owns a telephone line at Nelson executed a feat of nerve last week by climbing up on the bridge near Nelson, and cutting away the telephone wires. The bridge was under water about 10 feet only the top part being visible.

As Walter Townsend and Will Tyler of Arrow Rock tried to cross Camp creek, between Arrow Rock and Marshall Tuesday, one of Mr. Townsend's horses fell through the bridge and was drowned, while the other was badly crippled. The men were also injured. The high water had washed part of the embankment away.

MARRIAGES.

O. Ashworth of Bloomington, Ill., and Miss Elouise Durrett of Slater.

Yellow Fever Spreading

In the South—fortunately Missouri is not in the fever belt and the coming of frost will soon kill the germs, then Southerners will breathe easy. When the cold weather comes your loan will come due. Let us renew it for you at the most desirable of rates and best of terms and you can rest easy.

Why not write about it to-day?

Minter & Lamkin
Keytesville, Mo.